FUND MANAGEMENT

It is recommended that each club or group have a checking account in which to deposit all cash or checks received from club sales, collection of cash from club members for activities, or donations made to the club.

If a checking account does exist, the volunteer leader is to ensure that:

- ◆ Deposits are made in a timely manner;
- ◆ Another club member (not the treasurer) is elected to reconcile the monthly bank statements with the treasurer's book;
- ◆ All payments of bills made by the club or group are to be made by check, and with supporting documentation (bills, statements, packing slips, etc.). All bills are canceled as they are paid;
- ◆ Another club member (not the treasurer) is elected to be the check signer. The member authorized as the check signer reviews the supporting documentation for each check.

If a checking account does exist, the volunteer leader is to ensure that:

- ◆ Another club member (not the treasurer) is elected to reconcile the cash, receipts, and bills with the treasurer's book on a monthly basis;
- ◆ Cash is adequately secured and safeguarded;
- ◆ All payments of bills made by the club or group are to be made with supporting documentation (bills, statements, packing slips, etc.). All bills are canceled as they are paid.

AN AUDITING COMMITTEE

Every 4-H Club handling funds should make use of an auditing committee to examine and verify the accounts of the Club at the end of the year. The chairman of the committee should, make a report to the Club and file a written statement with the secretary for a permanent record in the minutes. An auditing committee prevents misunderstanding and protects the out-going and incoming treasurers of your Club. Such a committee is usually appointed by the president of the Club at the time the books are to be audited.
